AGENTS WANTED.—Now Ready:

The only official Southern History of the War.

THE LOST CAUSE.

J. E. POLLARD, the popular historian of the South, and Editor of the "Southern Historical Society," has just published in one large octavo volume, with 24 full page portraits, giving a full and detailed account of the rise and fall of the Late Southern Confederacy, and of the Civil War. Price $12.50. J. E. Johnson, George L. Stearns, and others. The work is being largely purchased by men of all classes—eager to hear "the other side."M. H. POLLARD describes a battle with the clearance which Victor Hugo has described Waterloo—it is a skillfully painted panorama and will entertain many hours.From the Nashville Gazette.We are induced to believe this book will take its place as a standard work on the war.From the Louisville Journal.Mrs. Pollard is one of the finest and most dazzling writers of the time. Her volume will have an immense circulation.This is far more forcible in its estimation, than that of Bennett, and surpasses by any other publication purposing to do this work.To energetic men and women a rare chance is offered to make money. Don't fail to send for circulars of this great and important work.E. B. TREAT & Co., Publishers, No. 634 Broadway, N.Y.
